

1/04/09 Jeff Symons

I received a plethora of prophetic words in the prophetic booth today and everyone was dead on. Pam Lloyd said she saw me on the tip of a ship that was tearing through the water and I was standing on the front of the ship with my arms to the side just taking it all in! She said that she saw me stepping out in boldness and courage (as I have been and plan on continuing)!

Abby said a few things: one that my wife is a special gift to me as I go out that I be able to share things with her. Abby said that I had been thinking I wasn't half the man I used to be and God is saying that I'm twice that man! I had been recently recollecting the times in my past when God had been tugging at my heart and drawing me closer to Him and how I'd failed to notice it! This word means a lot to me! She also said that I'm being used to lead other men into purity... and I've been working with a lifegroup at another church to encourage the men in the group to strengthen their faith. Finally the last lady (I forgot her name) said she saw me as a bulldozer...I'd be a blessing through with boldness! Every single word hit home with me! Praise God for this word!