I asked the Lord to speak to me about a guy sitting on the other side of the room that I had never seen in my life. When I looked at the guy, the first thing I felt the Lord spoke to me was that somebody close to him had recently passed away. As I sought God for further understanding, God showed me that the person who passed away recently was a mentor figure to him. I asked God how He wanted to encourage the man, and God told me that He wanted the mentor's legacy to live on through the man I was praying for. Later in the worship service, I stood up on the stage during our organized prophetic time in the service, and I said all the things I felt God had told me. The man confirmed that they were all true. In fact, the only reason he was at our church that morning was because the man's funeral would be in two days, and the whole family was in town for it. The man was his uncle, and he attended our church.
